Before the Office of Financial Aid can determine your eligibility for financial aid, you must submit documentation as support and proof of your status.

Instructions:

Please check one of the four boxes below that applies to your status.

- I am Unaccompanied and Homeless, or At Risk of Homelessness**
- I have an unusual circumstance that I can document and would like to be reviewed for a Dependency Override
- I should be permitted to borrow only Unsubsidized loans because I can document that my parents have refused to support me or to provide parental information on my FAFSA
- I made an error on my FAFSA and will now make corrections to add all required parental/contributor data to my FAFSA.

**Per Federal Student Aid regulatory definitions for unaccompanied & homeless or at risk of homelessness, see as follows:

Unaccompanied refers to when a student is not living in the physical custody of a parent or guardian.

Homeless refers to someone lacking fixed, regular and adequate housing.

- ❖ Fixed is considered to be stationary, permanent and not subject to change
- ❖ Regular is considered to be used on a predictable, routine or consistent basis
- ❖ Adequate is considered to be sufficient for meeting both the physical and psychological needs typically met in the home
- ❖ Self-supporting is considered to be a student who pays for his own living expenses, including fixed, regular and adequate housing
- ❖ At risk of being homeless is when a student's housing may cease to be fixed, regular and adequate, for example, a student who is being evicted and has been unable to find fixed, regular and adequate housing
