I am the above employee's current supervisor. The nature of this employee's position requires that from time to time company business be conducted outside of the City of Detroit. I acknowledge that the above employee's representation of days worked inside and outside of the City of Detroit during 2023 is a reasonable estimate. Our company understands that the income tax return of any individual is a private matter between that individual and the taxing authority. To that end, the employee is responsible for substantiating the information in his/her personal income tax return.
